UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC ENGLISH

Are you an undergraduate student whose first language is not English?

Do you need to develop specific academic communication skills to support your studies?

Find out more at:
www.brookes.ac.uk/englishsupport/undergraduate

Self Study resources
UNDERGRADUATE MODULES

Credit bearing Academic English modules are designed to develop academic language and skills for undergraduate study if your first language is not English.

They are designed for students who have little or no training in academic English and are new to English-medium university study.

They can be taken as an 8th module or as an extra 9th module with no additional charge.

U70909 Essential Academic Writing (Level 4)
U70910 Academic Writing for Business (Level 4)
U70906 Academic Listening and Speaking (Level 4)
U70923 Academic English for Business Purposes (Level 5)
U70924 Higher Academic English Language Skills (Level 5)

Registration is through your Personal Information Portal (PIP).

UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC ENGLISH SERVICE

This free non-credit bearing service is designed to develop the language and skills needed to perform specific undergraduate academic tasks.

You can make use of this service in addition to following an Academic English module.

Non credit bearing workshops in:

- Presentations
- Critical reviews
- Citation and referencing
- Essay writing
- Research reports
- Academic vocabulary
- Reflective writing
- Exam writing
- One-one tutorials
- Writing consultations
- Online study resources

FIND OUT MORE

For more information please visit www.brookes.ac.uk/englishsupport/undergraduate

For enquiries and guidance on your academic English study choices contact: academicenglishug@brookes.ac.uk